RECOGNIZING QUALITY

Elevate recognizes two categories of quality contractors—Inner Circle of Quality and Partner in Quality. The rating system to achieve these designations is based on each company's annual Quality Impact Rating (QIR).

The QIR Score is computed using the total cost and number of warrantable repair incidents occurring on Elevate roofs over the last three years; divided by the total square footage of Elevate roofs under warranty.

The Cost portion of the QIR Score is weighted at 60%, the Incident portion of the QIR Score is weighted at 40%.

The QIR Score is calculated for all Elevate contractors, and Elevate will recognize those contractors who achieve the highest levels of roofing quality in the 2026 Master Contractor Program year.

$$\text{Quality Impact Rating (QIR)} = \left[\frac{\text{3 year Claim Cost}}{\text{Total Square Feet under Warranty (in millions)}} \times 60\% \right] + \left[\frac{\text{3 year Incidents}}{\text{Total Square Feet under Warranty (in millions)}} \times 40\% \right]$$

The following awards will be presented to Elevate contractors who meet the QIR criteria for the year ending prior to the award:

EARNING MASTER CONTRACTOR QUALITY POINTS

Master Contractor, President's Club, and Platinum Council are ranked using MC Quality Points. Once the program requirements are met we rank the qualifying contractors by amount of MC Quality Points from high to low.

Throughout the year, contractors earn quality points for the installation of Elevate commercial roofing systems including RubberGard™ EPDM, UltraPly™ TPO, PVC, Asphalt, and Metal. For our 2026 programs, all systems must be in PIN with a Request for Inspection (RFI) date on or before November 6, 2026, to count toward your 2027 MC Quality Points. This determines the final standings of the programs.

MC QUALITY POINT STRUCTURE

Total MC Quality Points will be calculated as demonstrated in the chart and example below.

Using this formula, contractors can earn a maximum 13 points per square foot for Elevate Red Shield warranted projects.
